STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. On or about June 19, 2023, the Plaintiff, an African American, began working for the Defendant as a cashier. At all times, the Plaintiff was efficient and effective in her job.

11. Beginning on or about November 26, 2023, Plaintiff began to be racially discriminated against by her manager, Jessica Schultz (Caucasian), when Ms. Schultz removed Plaintiff from the schedule along with three other black employees.

12. The Plaintiff contacted Ms. Schultz to find out what was going on when Ms. Schultz told Plaintiff to come the following day for a meeting.

13. On or about November 27, 2023, the Plaintiff attended the meeting with Ms. Schultz. Ms. Schultz accused Plaintiff and the other three black employees of stealing cartons of cigarettes. When the Plaintiff informed Ms. Schultz that she did not steal anything and requested to see proof. Ms. Schultz stated that all four of the black employees looked "suspicious" on the camera.

14. The Plaintiff reported this as racial discrimination at the time to Ms. Schultz, but the Plaintiff was terminated.

15. Defendant retaliated against Plaintiff for reporting the discriminatory acts and failed to stop the discrimination, disparate treatment, and inappropriate behavior, thereby creating a hostile work environment. Plaintiff's termination was pretextual in nature and not the true reason for letting the Plaintiff go.

16. The Plaintiff also worked 50-60 hours every week, but only getting paid for 40 hours. The Plaintiff had requested also to know why she was not getting paid for her overtime, but she was terminated instead of getting a response.

17. It was the duty of Defendant, by and through its agents, servants and/or employees, to prevent such acts of racial discrimination, disparate treatment, and inappropriate behavior from occurring and to stop it once the behavior had been reported by the Plaintiff.

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Racial Discrimination - Title VII

18. The Plaintiff reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

19. Plaintiff is a member of a protected group on the basis of her race. Plaintiff was retaliated against and terminated based on her race and/or color in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended 42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.), and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act.

20. Defendant was wanton, reckless, willful and intentional in the discrimination of the Plaintiff in the following particulars, to wit:

- a. In failing to continue to employ Plaintiff based on her race and/or color;
- b. In showing preferential treatment to Caucasian employees and detrimental treatment to Plaintiff; and
- c. In demonstrating a pattern of discriminatory treatment towards African American employees by making disparaging remarks and terminating those who were in a protected class.

21. In failing to protect the Plaintiff from racial discrimination or preferential treatment, the Defendant acted with malice or reckless indifference to the federally protected rights set out under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.) and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act.

22. The Defendant violated Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.), and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act by allowing the racial discrimination and preferential treatment to exist in the workplace.

23. The Plaintiff's race and/or color were determining factors in the disparate treatment and wrongful discharge of the Plaintiff. But for the Plaintiff's race and/or color, she would not have been terminated.

24. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendant's discrimination on the basis of race and/or color, the Plaintiff has suffered a loss of wages, benefits, and employment opportunities.

30. That shortly after making said complaints, the Defendant fired the Plaintiff, which is in violation of 42 U.S.C. §2000e-3.

31. The Defendant's stated reasons for retaliation and wrongful discharge were mere pretext for the retaliation against Plaintiff based on her engaging in protected activity.

32. The Plaintiff's reports of racial discrimination were determining factors in the retaliation and wrongful discharge of Plaintiff. But for Plaintiff's reports of racial discrimination, she would not have been terminated.

33. The Defendant was wanton, reckless and intentional in the retaliation against the Plaintiff for engaging in protected activity.

34. That the aforesaid conduct of Defendant, its agents and servants, violates United States laws against retaliatory dismissal and was, in fact, retaliatory in nature and was in violation of Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.).

35. In failing to protect the Plaintiff from retaliation, the Defendant acted with malice or reckless indifference to the federally protected rights set out under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.).

36. The Defendant violated Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.), and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act by allowing the retaliation to exist in the workplace.

37. That as a result of the above, Plaintiff has suffered damages in the form of lost back and future wages, income and benefits, expenses associated with finding other work, and has suffered severe psychological harm, emotional distress, anxiety, depression, inconvenience, mental anguish, loss of enjoyment of life, embarrassment, humiliation, loss to professional standing, character and reputation, physical and personal injuries, and further seeks attorney's fees and costs and prejudgment interest.

38. That the Defendant's actions as set forth above were undertaken intentionally, willfully, wantonly, recklessly, maliciously and with utter disregard for the federally protected rights of the Plaintiff, and therefore Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive damages from the Defendant.

FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

41. The Plaintiff is informed and believes that the Defendant was unjustly enriched in maintaining wages which rightfully belong to the Plaintiff pursuant to the FLSA.

42. As a direct and proximate result of the acts, omissions, and practices of the Defendant, the Plaintiff sustained a loss of income and wages.

43. The Plaintiff was also terminated in retaliation for complaining about not getting paid her wages, in violation of the anti-retaliation provisions in the Fair Labor Standards Act.

44. As a direct and proximate result of the acts and practices of the Defendant, the Plaintiff is informed and believes she is entitled to an award of damages, liquidated damages, treble damages, prejudgment interest, costs, legal fees, and any other damages to which he may be entitled as determined by the trier of fact.
